

Cultural Connections

keeping you informed about cultural activities and opportunities in the Heart of Georgian Bay

Audition Notice

Three actors (Adam, Eve and God) are being sought for this virtual comedy theatre experience.

This 40 minute play is crafted in the style of video diaries kept by Adam and Eve. God is also online and wants to set the record straight on a few items of potential confusion like the Ark, the Emu, and whether or not the Banana is the perfect fruit.

Anyone interested in auditioning please contact hp@huroniplayers.ca to receive a few pages of the script and a Zoom audition time for either January 23 or January 24.

Virtual Indigenous Film Series

Thursday, January 28, 6:30pm

Thursday, February 25, 6:30pm

Thursday, March 25, 6:30pm

Join MPL for an online film screening and follow-up discussion.

On January 28, the film Gather examines Indigenous foodways and the growing movement amongst Native Americans to reclaim their spiritual, political and cultural identities through food sovereignty.

On February 25, nîpawistamâsowin: We Will Stand Up weaves a profound narrative encompassing the filmmaker's own adoption, the stark history of colonialism on the Prairies, and a vision of a future where Indigenous children can live safely on their homelands.

On March 25, Jordan River Anderson, The Messenger tells the story of how the life of Jordan River Anderson initiated a battle for the right of First Nations and Inuit children to receive the same standard of social, health and educational services as the rest of the Canadian population.

Email Faith at fshegold@midlandlibrary.com or call 705-526-4216 ext. 3305 to register and receive the online meeting information.

The Culture Alliance in the Heart of Georgian Bay celebrates, fosters, promotes and leverages cultural resources with a view to grow a prosperous year-round creative economy, and enhance the quality of life and cultural awareness for all residents.
